SENYLRC Community

We rely on assistance from members to enhance our services. These volunteers help by convening Special Interest Groups (SIGs), hosting unconfereces, sitting on active committees, advising on new programs and services, and serving on award committees. The behind-the-scenes hard work done by committee members and other volunteers is what makes SENYLRC's ongoing service possible. The five standing committees are:

- Continuing Education (CE)
- Digital Advisory (DAC)
- Hospital Library Services (HLSP)
- Technology Review and Advisory (TRAC)
- Regional Interlibrary Loan (RIC)

2015-2016 at SENYLRC

The past year has been an active one for us. In addition to the members served this year by our programs and services, the Board of Trustees has undertaken planning for Southeastern’s future. When finished, this strategic plan will result in a 3-year plan for the council.

We are certain this plan will include ideas to grow and diversify our programs and services. Member feedback indicates that networking opportunities and more training are in demand. With that in mind, we will explore ways to become a hub for members to keep their skills up-to-date and to learn about technology and its application in libraries.

We are a network of libraries, archives, museums, and historical societies. Between hosting Special Interest Groups, teaching members how to digitize collections, and sharing materials with other libraries, we are here to help you facilitate collaboration with similar organizations and professionals in the region. Stay abreast of our latest initiatives via our website, newsletter, and email communications!

Hospital Libraries

The Hospital Library Services Program (HLSP) allows SENYLRC’s hospital librarians the opportunity to work collaboratively to enhance services and meet increasing demands for peer-reviewed literature. HLSP also provides access to a federated search system for one-stop searching for all electronic resources, reduced vendor pricing, and cost savings thanks to a SENYLRC-administered state subsidy.

The Medical Information Services Program (MISP) subsidizes the delivery of peer-reviewed medical information to all types of libraries in the region, including hospital, public, school, and academic libraries.
