

SOUTHEASTERN NEWS

March 2024

Volume 19, Issue 3

Welcome!

Did February feel extra long to anyone else? This leap year gave us one extra day to pile this newsletter with information that will help you and your work. If you like what you see here, please tell a friend to sign up for our newsletter.

If you only have time for one thing: Take a look at the upcoming professional development from Southeastern. We're soft-launching a few registrations here: The Banned Books Symposium, the ACRL Roadshow on RDM, and SENYCon 2024! Stand-alone announcements about each program will come from this address this month, but you can be the first to register if you scroll down now.

Additionally, we have news on:

- The Twila Snead Award for Excellence
- Employment Opportunities
- SEAL Newsletter
- Digital Navigators Spring cohort
- NYLA conference & council
- Library Freedom Institute
- Ask the Lawyer
- DHP Grant Funding

Digital Navigators Spring Cohort

Digital Navigators are trained, trusted guides who help with various technology needs. Navigators work in libraries and other community organizations.

We are now accepting applications for the spring cohort!

The program is open to anyone who works at a library or a community-based organization that would like to offer Digital Navigator services to their patrons. Applications are due on Tuesday, March 26, at 12:00 pm. Applications are open to individuals who work at libraries and nonprofit organizations in the following counties: Columbia, Greene, Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan, Ulster, and Westchester.

If you have questions and want more details, please join us for an information session on March 20 at 2:00 pm.

The Twila Snead Award for Excellence

This award recognizes an outstanding member library, cultural heritage organization, program, service, or staff member.

Nominations for the 2024 award are now open and are being accepted until Friday, April 26, 2024.

Please take a look at the details on our website here.

Employment Opportunities

Local library jobs are listed on our employment page here: <https://www.senylrc.org/jobs>

We receive updates all the time and post them as soon as possible. You can submit your listing by sending an email to jobposting@senylrc.org.

NYLA Conference & Council

The New York Library Association is looking for presenters for the annual conference! This year's conference will be in-person at the Oncenter in Syracuse, New York on November 6-9. If you have a great idea for a panel or presentation, let them know here: 2024 Program Proposal Form

Proposals are due Monday, March 25.

NYLA's Nominating Committee is also asking members to nominate themselves or another NYLA member for one of their open Council positions this election cycle.

Nominations will be accepted until 11:59 pm on Monday, March 11th. Selected candidates will be notified by late March. The NYLA Council Election will run from June 1st - June 15th.

More information and the nomination form are here

DHP Grant Funding

The New York State Archives is pleased to announce the availability of the guidelines and application for the 2024-2025 DHP funding cycle. Documentary Heritage Program (DHP) Grants grants are designed to build a more comprehensive and equitable documentation of New York State's history and culture by supporting projects that identify, survey, collect, arrange, describe, and make available records that relate to groups and topics traditionally under-represented in the State.

Application Deadline: April 2, 2024. Details about DHP grants and how to apply are available on the DHP Grants web page. If you have questions about these grants, please contact John Diefenderfer and Heather Carroll at DHS@nysed.gov.

Library Freedom Institute

Library Freedom Institute is a privacy-focused 6-month virtual training for librarians. This curriculum will give them the tools they need to become privacy champions in their libraries.

Once-a-month, Library Freedom Institute will provide a 2-hour training that covers a variety of topics. Throughout the course, each participant will spend 1-2 hours a week asynchronously working on a project to be shared with the LFP community.

LFI is made possible with generous support from the Rose Foundation for Communities and the Environment. Applications are due March 18. More information here: <https://libraryfreedom.org/institute/>
